Fifth Sunday of Easter

REFLECTION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL READING

Today's Gospel again comes from the Gospel of John. Like last week, today we hear words spoken by Jesus before his death and Resurrection. Jesus is teaching at the Last Supper.

John's Gospel does not include an institution of the Eucharist narrative; instead, Jesus washes his disciples' feet. Immediately after, Jesus predicts his betrayal by Judas. Today's Gospel follows that prediction. It can be read as a continuing explanation of Jesus' act of washing his disciples' feet. It begins with the announcement that this is the moment when the Son of Man will be glorified. This theme continues throughout John's Passion. Jesus will be glorified in his death on the cross and in his Resurrection, and the disciples will glorify Jesus in the love they show.

John's Gospel does not present a sentimental view of love. This is a type of love that is shown in service and sacrifice. It is difficult to choose to love when faced with hatred and anger. Jesus tells the disciples that all will know that they are his disciples because of the love they show for one another. This description of the early Christian community will be repeated in the Acts of the Apostles: "See how they love one another." Christian love is the hallmark of Christianity. We see it lived in the witness of the martyrs. We see it in the example of the lives of the saints. We see it in the holy women and men who live and love daily, making small and large sacrifices for others.

Thank You for Helping Us

Change Lives for Good - One Family at a Time!

Saints of the Week

Tues, May 20: St. Bernardine of Siena, Priest.

Bernardine, died 1444; O.F.M.; famous reformer and eloquent preacher who traveled throughout Italy; encouraged devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus; known for his use of the monogram, HIS (Iesus Hominum Salvator); patron of advertisers and advertising; invoked against hoarseness.

Wed, May 21: St. Christopher Magallanes, Priest, Martyr, and His Companions, Martyrs.

Christopher Magallanes and twenty-one diocesan priests and three laymen (died 1915-1937) were either shot or hung for their association with the Cristero uprising which opposed the anti-Catholic Mexican government in the 1920s. The Cristero slogan: "Long live Christ the King and the Virgin of Guadalupe".

Thurs, May 22: St. Rita of Cascia, Religious.

Rita was born in 1381 in the town of Roccaporena in Umbria. Obedient to parents who refused her wish to become a nun, Rita married a man who returned her devotion with twenty years of abuse. When enemies murdered him, Rita's two sons swore revenge. Paintings depict her pointing the angry boys toward Christ crucified, whom she begged to restrain them. Within the year, both sons died. Alone now, Rita went to the convent but was refused. The nuns feared violence, since one of them was related to the murderer. Becoming an Augustinian nun, she spent some forty years in prayer, contemplation, and service to the sick and poor. Toward the end of her life, she received a wound from a thorn from the crown of thorns. She died in 1457. She is the patron saint of desperate situations.

FRIENDLY VOICES

Reducing Loneliness One Call at a Time

Friendly Voices is dedicated to reducing loneliness and creating connection for older adults through free weekly phone calls from trained, compassionate volunteers. Our aging population often has limited resources, lives alone or aging-in-place without deep in-person connections.

Each older adult is personally matched 1:1 with their own volunteer who will call them every week, for meaningful conversation and friendship lasting months to years. Volunteers are background-checked, trained, and mentored. Together, no one has to feel alone.

It's free and easy to sign-up or volunteer at www.friendlyvoices.org or 650-395-8017

Thank You to School Families

We are very grateful to the families and staff of Resurrection School, who held a food drive recently.

Our SVdP pantry received two hundred and thirty nonperishable food items as well as fifty-five toiletries as a result.

Car donations:

When you donate your used vehicle to the donation program of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, your contribution benefits someone in our local community.

Donated vehicles are picked-up within a few business days, and documentation useful for tax purposes is compiled and sent to you. Call 1-800-322-8284 or go to svdp.org (click on "Give Now") to learn just how easy it is to donate an old vehicle and help needy families in the process.
