Third Sunday of Easter

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING

On the third Sunday of Easter, we continue to hear Gospel accounts of Jesus' appearances to his disciples following his Resurrection. Today's reading, taken from the Gospel of Luke, follows immediately after the report of Jesus' appearance to his disciples on the road to Emmaus. This is the event being recounted by the disciples in the opening verse of today's Gospel.

Consistently in the reports of Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances, Jesus greets his disciples with the words, "Peace be with you." This is a most appropriate greeting. The disciples have witnessed the death of someone they loved, and they now fear for their own lives as well. Peace is what they need more than anything else. Jesus often connects this greeting of peace with another gift—forgiveness. In today's Gospel, this connection is made in the final verses.

Even as they hear Jesus' greeting of peace, the disciples are startled and terrified. They are uncertain about what to make of the figure before them and, quite understandably, they mistake Jesus for a ghost. Yet the figure before them is not a ghost; Jesus invites them to experience his resurrected body with their senses, to look and to touch. The figure before them is flesh and bone, still bearing the marks of crucifixion. Although the disciples cannot forget his suffering and death, peace begins to take root in their hearts, as their fears turn to joy and amazement.

As further proof of his identity and of his resurrected body, Jesus eats with his disciples. The disciples have known Jesus best through the meals that he has shared with them. Descriptions of these meals are a defining element of Luke's Gospel. By eating with his disciples after his Resurrection, Jesus recalls all these meals, and most importantly, he recalls the Last Supper.

Luke's report of the Last Supper and the meals that Jesus shared after his Resurrection unveil for us the significance of the Eucharist. Having shared a meal with his disciples, Jesus now uncovers for them the significance of what was written about him in the Scriptures. So, too, our celebration of the Mass is an encounter with Jesus, through the Word and the Sacrament of the Eucharist. As Jesus commissions his disciples to be witnesses to what Scriptures foretold, our celebration of the Eucharist commissions us. Like the disciples, we are sent to announce the good news of Jesus' forgiveness of sins.

FINAL STARRY KNIGHTS AUCTION (MAY 4) TICKET BOOTH TODAY, SUNDAY, APRIL 14

Our official last day of ticket sales is Monday, April 15th!

We will be setting up a booth outside the Church parking lot exit after all Mass times today, Sunday, April 14th. This is your last chance to buy a either a general admission or VIP table ticket to this fun, 90's-themed auction event.

Come for an opportunity to win a "Holy Shot" with Father Phong.

Over thirty of your fellow parishioners are already attending this amazing night.

WE WILL ALSO BE ACCEPTING DONATIONS

Whether you're able to attend our auction or not, we are still accepting donations. These donations can be items, experiences, or monetary, and no donation is too small.

We will be accepting donations at our booth today, Sunday, April 14, so please come see us.

If you're not able to visit the booth, donations can always be dropped off at the school's front office.

If you're donating a check, please make it out to 'Resurrection School.'

Thank you!

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM Infants and Young Children

Baptism is the first sacrament of Christian initiation. Baptism is scheduled on Saturdays.

Parents of infants/young children are asked to:

► contact the parish to set a time to speak to Fr. Arthur Yabes at 408-245-5554, or email arthur.yabes@dsj.org about the baptism of your child.

► Fill out a baptism form (if you wish, this can be done by going to the website at www.resurrection.church-org and filling out the baptism form).

► Godparents and parents are required to register for and do an online baptism session/class at CatechismClass.com Once you have completed the online baptism class, please submit the certificate to the parish office at maryclare@resparish.org

The baptism session is valid for one year. Godparents are required to be present at the celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism.

Pantry needs: Thank you very much for kindly helping us to feed the hungry in our community.

Please continue to help us restock our pantry for coming weeks. We need pasta sauce, small bags of rice, mac 'n' cheese, peanut butter, cereal, canned fruit, canned vegetables, dried beans, canned fish, canned soup, and meals -in-a-can.

Donations can be placed in the designated baskets near the Church exits, or brought to the front of the Church on Saturday morning between 8 and 9 o'clock.

If you come on Saturday, you are invited to stay to chat with us and find out what we Vincentians do.

Cars donations: When you donate your used vehicle to the donation program of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, your contribution benefits someone in our local community.

Donated vehicles are picked-up within a few business days, and documentation useful for tax purposes is compiled and sent to you. Call 1-800-322-8284 or go to svdp.org (click on "Give Now") to learn just how easy it is to donate an old vehicle and help needy families in the process.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

Thank you to all of the parishioners who generously gave to the CRS Rice Bowl Campaign during Lent.

We collected over $5,900 to help feed starving families around the world.

If you have not yet returned your Rice Bowl, please place it in the marked boxes at the exits of the Church.

Blessing to you!
