3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

Third Sunday of Easter

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING

In Lectionary Cycle C, our Sunday Gospels are usually taken from the Gospel of Luke. The Gospels for the Easter Season, however, are taken from the Gospel of John. Today's Gospel is one of the post-Resurrection appearances reported by John. Recall that in John's Gospel, Jesus appears first to Mary of Magdala, second to all of the disciples except Thomas, and finally to Thomas and the disciples (which we heard last Sunday). After those appearances, John's Gospel seems to conclude with a reference to other signs that Jesus gave after his Resurrection, which have not been recorded.

Last week, we heard that Jesus appeared to the gathered disciples in a locked room, probably in Jerusalem. In today's Gospel, the disciples are no longer in Jerusalem; they are in Galilee, returning to their work of fishing. Simon Peter is still presented in the role of leader: when he announces that he is going fishing, the other disciples follow. They spend the night fishing but are unsuccessful. Jesus calls to them from the shore, but just as when Jesus first appeared to Mary of Magdala, the disciples do not recognize him immediately. Still, they follow the stranger's instructions and bring in a large haul of fish. It is at this point that one of the disciples (the "disciple whom Jesus loved") realizes that Jesus is appearing to them. Upon hearing this news, Simon Peter leads the way again, jumping from the boat and swimming to shore. The other disciples follow in the boat, dragging the fish.

The disciples have brought to shore a tremendous catch of fish that Jesus has directed them to find. But once on the shore, they see that Jesus has already prepared fish and bread on a charcoal fire. Jesus directs the disciples to bring their catch of fish as well. Jesus is host at the meal that follows, feeding the disciples the bread and fish. In this detail we see allusions to the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes told in John 6.

There are also allusions in the Gospel to our gathering for the celebration of the Mass. In the Eucharist, we too are fed by Jesus in the bread and wine that have become his very Body and Blood. We also find in this story insight about the Presentation of the Gifts at Mass. The gifts we bring to the altar, bread and wine, are made from gifts that God gave first to us: grain and grapes, the fruit of the earth. God has no need of anything further. Yet God accepts the offering we bring—bread and wine, "the work of human hands"—and transforms our offering into the gift of his very presence.

After the meal, Jesus directs himself to Simon Peter. The community of John's Gospel probably looked down on Peter because of his denial of Jesus. This dialogue with Simon Peter is a reversal of Peter's three denials. Peter is forgiven. Having been restored to friendship with Jesus, Simon Peter is sent on a mission. "Feed my lambs . . . Tend my sheep . . . Feed my sheep." These commands indicate that Peter is to be as Jesus, even unto sacrificing for the flock. As Jesus has fed Peter in this meal and as Jesus feeds us in the Eucharist, so he also sends us to follow him, asking that we offer our lives in service and sacrifice.

May and Mary

There have been long devotions to our Blessed Mother, but the dedication of the month of May to Mary is a more recent development in the long history of the Church. In the sixteenth century there were month-long Marian devotions, but they were not necessarily associated with May. In medieval times, various celebrations involving Mary occurred in May. But it wasn't until late eighteenth-century Italy that the idea of dedicating May to Mary began to take root. This notion flourished in the nineteenth century and began to foster daily devotions, frequent rosaries, and May crownings around the world. And so May, the lovely month of nature's motherhood, came to be dedicated to our Blessed Virgin Mary.

With Mary, the apostles and first disciples kept prayerful vigil for the Spirit's coming, the culmination of Mary's faith-filled lifetime. Mary's faith was shown forth in her acceptance of the angel's word at the Annunciation, her charity in the Visitation to Elizabeth, her trust in Joseph during the flight into Egypt, her steadfast vigil beneath her Son's cross. Throughout these joyful and sorrowful mysteries of her life, Mary's faith-filled heart embraced God's will, making her an instrument for the accomplishment of God's plan for our salvation, and a living model for us of trust and perseverance. For Mary's undaunted faith and the selfless love it inspired, all generations shall call her blessed.

Sat, May 10: St. John of Avila, Priest & Doctor of the Church; St. Damien Joseph de Veuster of Moloka'i, Priest (USA).

John of Avila, 1499-1569, was a Spanish priest, preacher, scholastic author, and religious mystic. He is called the "Apostle of Andalusia" for his extensive ministry in that region of Spain. He is the patron of Andalusia and the Spanish secular clergy.

Damien de Veuster, died April 15, 1889 at age forty-nine; Belgian who joined the Fathers of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary (Picpus Fathers); arrived in Honolulu March 19, 1864; in 1873 began his work on Moloka'i, known as "Devil's Island," used as a colony for over eight hundred lepers; diagnosed with leprosy in 1885; a man of intense interior life and deep simplicity; canonized October 11, 2009; "I make myself a leper with the lepers, to gain all for Jesus Christ.

Some saints transcend religious and ethnic boundaries to touch the heart that beats in each human being. Francis of Assisi; Mother Teresa; and, St. Damien. Far from his native Flanders' idyllic beauty and rich culture, Damien volunteered to bear Christ's light into Moloka'i's bleak leper colony, building decent homes, opening schools, establishing clinics, planting farms, sharing the sufferings—and the social stigma—of those with whom he delighted. "We lepers," he would proudly say when finally he contracted leprosy. St. Damien challenges us to identify the lepers of our day, to examine our compassion for and our identification with them.

FAMILY SERVICE SUNDAY

All parishioners are invited to a free pancake breakfast today, Sunday, May 4, 2025 after the 8:30 and 10:00 am Masses. After breakfast, all families are invited to participate in service activities including rice bagging for low-income families, toiletry and snack bagging for the homeless, and making "Loving Hands" for the Kairos prison ministry. Please mark your calendars.

This event is co-sponsored by ICF and SVdP.

TIJUANA MINISTRY

We want to thank parishioners for their generous support for last week's Tijuana Ministry bake sale. Please continue to keep the people of Tijuana and the success of this ministry in your prayers. With God's help, we can do more! For more information about the Tijuana Ministry at Resurrection, please contact Mike O'Connell at 408-887-9055.

Fresh From Your Garden?

Do you occasionally have extra fruits or vegetables from your home garden? If you can kindly bring your fresh produce to the front of the Church on Saturday mornings by 8:30, we can include it in our weekly grocery distribution to needy families.

Please do not deliver after the front doors are closed.

Egg Cartons:

We are seeking donations of clean egg cartons (12 or 6 capacity) for our Saturday grocery deliveries. Cartons can be put in the baskets near the Church exits, or in the barrels in the SVdP area near the men's room.

Thank you!
