You are encouraged to look-up the weekly readings in your Bible as preparation for Mass and for daily Bible reading.

Death does not have the final say. This is the great mystery we ponder on this Fifth Sunday of Lent. Martha and Mary were good friends of Jesus. They did not hide their confusion and grief from the Lord; they voiced their conviction that if Jesus had been with them during their brother's illness, he would not have died. Jesus entered into their grief and more—he overturned it. Lazarus' death became the occasion for Jesus to show all who had gathered the mercy of God who cries out, "Oh my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them." In this moment, the world was given a sign of the new life to come through Christ, the Risen One.

FROM DEATH TO NEW LIFE

There really is no way around it. Eventually, we will grapple with the death of a loved one, a parent, sibling, spouse, or dear friend. As we mature, we also begin to come to terms with our own mortality. Our Sunday readings this Lent have invited our reflection on the big questions of life and faith. We have resolved to turn away from sin and toward God, listening to the Lord and responding with open minds and hearts. We have acknowledged and perhaps heightened our thirst for the Lord and have committed ourselves to walk in the light of God's grace. Today, we journey from death to new life, reflecting on the mystery of Christ who is the resurrection and the life.

COME TO BELIEVE

Martha had a uniquely personal relationship with Jesus. She spoke with him honestly, baring her heart to Jesus, openly expressing her confusion and sorrow at her brother's death. Jesus' response led Martha to a deep declaration of faith, "I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." We, too, can have a uniquely personal relationship with Jesus. We can speak honestly to the Lord, baring our hearts, expressing the truth of each moment of our lives, whether in joy or sorrow, happiness, grief, confusion, or times of fulfillment. In such honesty and trust, we may find deeper faith as well, coming to believe that Christ is our all, our way, truth, and life.

Remember us when you shop for groceries during Lent:

Thank you for your recent contributions! Please help us replenish our pantry for coming weeks. We are serving more families now and can't keep up with the need. We are seeking pasta, pasta sauce, peanut butter, small bags of rice, canned soup, meals-in-a-can, cereal, and canned fruit, as well as paper grocery bags with handles. We can also use toiletries, especially toothbrushes, travel-size toothpaste, soaps/body wash, shampoo, and conditioner. Please place donations in the designated baskets at the entrances of the Church. God bless your charitable heart!

Cars with dents can help pay rents: When you donate your used vehicle to the donation program of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, your contribution benefits someone in our local community. Donated vehicles are picked-up within a few business days, and documentation useful for tax purposes is compiled and sent to you. Call 1-800-322-8284 or go to svdp.org (click on "Give Now") to learn just how easy it is to donate an old vehicle and help needy families in the process.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES RICE BOWL

This week our Lenten journey of prayer, fasting, and giving alms takes us to Kenya. Meet Rebecca and Lotiang, who are struggling farmers living in Turkana, Kenya. They are dependent on rain and river water to survive. Over the last ten years, it has been raining less and less due to climate change. CRS launched a program to install a solar powered well in their village and teach them new farming techniques. They now can irrigate their crops on a regular basis and feed their family. He now has income to send his children to school. You can support CRS in these efforts by placing your Lenten sacrifices in your Rice Bowl.
